WHY DO WE CELEBRATE A DEATH

- A funeral is a celebration of life
- It is an occasion for mourning
- A funeral may be the one calm event in a situation full of trauma. (murder, suicide, catastrophic event)
- Funerals can provide a measure of dignity where none exist (death of a criminal)
- It can be an expression of gratitude after lingering illness.
- Honour can be the central character of a funeral.
(Servicemen and national figures)
- A funeral can be loving, unifying, ritualistic, traditional and ethnic
- It is a bridge from sorrow to sunlight
- A funeral provides medicine which starts the healing
- It can be an expression of religious faith
- A funeral is an event of compassion when performed for an indigent
- Funerals bring out the best in people.
Neighbourliness abounds
- Old wounds can be closed
- New beginnings are made
- Funerals, with the body present, help us face our own mortality
- Funerals are a shining expression of eternity

The options available to you and your family, when celebrating the life of your loved one, can be as simple or as elaborate as you choose. We will follow your wishes in helping you plan a personalized celebration that is reflective of your needs and the wishes of the deceased.

“A funeral is no longer a day in a life,
it’s a lifetime in one day.”
